In addition to any other powers and duties provided for by this Act and in order for the commission to carry out its purposes as described in this Act, the commission shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) To have a seal and to alter the same at its pleasure;

(2) To acquire, hold, and dispose of in its own name, by purchase, gift, lease, or exchange in such manner as it may deem proper, real and personal property of every kind; provided, however, that the commission shall not have the power to acquire any real or personal property by condemnation or eminent domain;

(3) To procure insurance against loss in connection with its property and other assets of the commission;

(4) To exercise the power provided by Code Section 45-9-1 of the O.C.G.A. to procure policies of liability insurance or contracts of indemnity or to formulate sound programs for self-insurance to insure or indemnify members of the commission and its officers and employees against personal liability or damages arising out of the performance of their duties;

(5) To make contracts and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient in connection with the comprehensive plan;

(6) To establish bylaws and adopt, alter, or repeal its own bylaws, rules, and regulations governing the manner in which its business may be transacted as the commission may deem necessary or expedient;

(7) To receive, accept and utilize gifts, grants, donation, or contributions of money, property, facilities, or services with or without consideration from any person, firm, corporation, foundation, or other entity or from the State of Georgia or any agency, instrumentality, or political subdivision thereof or from the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof;

(8) To the extent that a contract between the commission and a public or private agency provides, to act as an agent of such public or private agency in any matter coming within the purposes or powers of the commission;

(9) To select, appoint, and employ professional, administrative, clerical, or other personnel and to contract professional or other services and to allow suitable compensation for such services;

(10) To do all things necessary and convenient to carry out the powers and purposes of the commission which are expressly provided for in this Act; and

(11) To keep suitable and proper books and records of all receipts, income, and expenditures of every kind and obtain an annual independent audit of income and expenditures.

SECTION 8.

Members as trustees.

The members of the commission are trustees and shall be accountable in all respects to manage the funds and expenditures and direct the policies of the commission.

SECTION 9.

Immunity.

The commission shall have the same immunity and exemption from liability for torts and negligence as Gilmer County, and the officers, agents, and employees of the commission, when in the performance of the work of the commission, shall have the same immunity and exemption from liability for torts and negligence as the officers, agents, and employees of Gilmer County when in the performance of their public duties or the work of the county.

SECTION 10.

Charitable and public functions.

Because the commission will be performing valuable and charitable and public functions and purposes in the exercise of the powers conferred upon it, the commission shall not be required to pay taxes or assessments by the state or by any county, municipality, authority, or political subdivision of the state upon any real or personal property acquired by it or upon its activities in the operation or maintenance of any facility maintained or acquired by it or upon any income from levy and sale, garnishment, or attachment.

SECTION 11.

Federal taxation exemption.

The commission shall apply to the Internal Revenue Service for the exemption from federal taxation pursuant to Section 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code.

SECTION 12.

Actions.

Any action brought against the commission shall be brought in the Superior Court of Gilmer County and such court shall have exclusive original jurisdiction of such action.

SECTION 13.

Liberal construction.

Being for the welfare of the state and its inhabitants, this Act shall be liberally construed to effect the purposes of this Act.

1                                   SECTION 14.

2                                   Effective date.

3   This Act shall become effective upon its approval by the Governor or upon its becoming law
4   without such approval.

5                                   SECTION 15.

6                                   Repealer.

7   All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
